

BRITON DOWNED BY AUSTRALIAN IN NET CONTEST

J. O. Anderson Defeats F. G. Lowe in the Second Round of the Tennis Match for the Davis Cup.

(By The Associated Press.)
Pittsburgh, Aug. 6.—J. O. Anderson defeated F. G. Lowe of the British Isles, 6-2, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2 in the first match today of the Davis cup second round of tennis.

This eliminated the British player and entitled the Australians to play the Denmark team at Cleveland next week.

In the last event Maxwell Woosnam of the British Isles, defeated J. B. Hawkes of Australasia, 6-3, 6-5, 7-9, 6-3, 6-3.

The result of the series was three to two in favor of Australasia.

Anderson was in splendid form in the first set, scoring 23 points in the first half and 15 in the second half, and was adept with his returns, in both first and second sets. In the latter set, he scored 41 to Lowe's 28 points.

Lowe was not only faulty in his serving, but also seemed unable to judge his placement shots accurately. Anderson had Lowe on the jump, while he had no trouble in reaching the ball.

In the third set Lowe made a desperate stand, and Anderson appeared to grow careless. Lowe won the second, third, fourth and fifth games by placing his shots almost perfectly. His footwork improved. This was shown in the eighth game, which went to deuce, he taking the extra points necessary to win. Lowe had 30 points to Anderson's 20 in this set.

However, Lowe was unable to continue the pace, and Anderson had it all his own way in the fourth set. Lowe gave him a battle only in the sixth game, a deuce game won by Anderson. In the last two games of the set, Anderson scored eight points to two for Lowe. The final point scores for this set were:

Anderson, 28; Lowe, 18.

CONTRACTORS DEMAND A DOLLAR A DAY CUT IN PAY OF EMPLOYEES

ided that all the crafts should reduce their present scale not proportionately with the reduction in prices of material, and it was felt that a reduction of $1 a day in the crafts would only a reasonable demand inasmuch as a demand for the similar reduction would be made upon building supply houses, lumber yards, etc. The contractors association that such a move will be considered in the spirit in which it is made, namely to be to the best interests of all concerned; to the building industry, to all the craftsmen and to the public. It is hoped that a reduction in prices of labor and new scale in prices of material will result in a new impetus and that no idle man who desires employment will be found. The contractors association believes in collective bargaining and will welcome a conference with material supply houses, lumber yards, etc., and we will suggest that all material houses get in touch with wholesalers as the problem will be solved very much easier if a reduction of material is simultaneous with a reduction of labor and the psychological effect upon the buying public will inure to the benefit of both material and labor.

(By The Associated Press.)

Mason, Idaho Falls insurance man, whose wrecked automobile was found late Tuesday night in Weber river, below a thirty-foot embankment. The search has been extended to a deep and swift irrigation canal near the scene of the wreck, some believing that if Mason was murdered his body was thrown into that canal.

MOTHER IDENTIFIES "RAGGED STRANGER" SLAIN BY WANDERER

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Aug. 6.—The "ragged stranger" who is alleged to have been duped into a fake hold-up by Carl Wanderer, convicted of the murder of his wife, her unborn child and the "stranger" was given a name today, Mrs. Nellie Ryan, employed at a hospital, said he was her son, Edward Ryan.

The identification was made several months ago but Mrs. Ryan said she was unable to bear the expense of burial and so remained silent. Edward, she said, found a home in Redfield, S. D., after his father died. For eighteen years, however, she had not heard from him.

"I was in church that holy Saturday when the minister preached the funeral and called my 'Ed' some mother's son," and I cried aloud. I wanted to go to the cemetery but the carriages were filled and there was no place for me."

Wanderer was convicted of the murder of his wife and sentenced to twenty-five years imprisonment and then was retried and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of the "stranger." He was reprieved last Friday for a month to allow a sanity commission to examine him.

FORMER SOX MEMBERS BARRED FROM PLAYING IN LAKE SHORE LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press.)
Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 6.—Seven former members of the Chicago American league baseball team, acquitted of charges that they took part in a gambling conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series, were refused permission to play against the "Chairmakers" of the Lake Shore league, it was announced today. It was declared E. L. Sickmeyer, of Chicago, sought an exhibition game here for the former White Sox.

"As far as the principles of law are concerned," the announcement by a director of the club said, "the indicted players are innocent, but they are still under the shadow of shame as far as the principles of organized baseball are concerned and until that stigma has been removed, we will not permit our team to play with them."

JEST PERPETRATED ON BRIDES IN METROPOLIS

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 6.—The New York World today disclosed a standing jest that it says was perpetrated by architects of the million dollar St. Thomas Episcopal church on the dozens of fashionable brides who have gone to the altar through the famous "brides' door" since the church was completed ten years ago.

Carved into the granite capital over the door, says the newspaper, is a huge dollar sign—slightly conventionalized, but unmistakable. A photograph of the door, reproduced to bear out the story, shows a beautiful and finely chiseled decoration surmounted by a double panel, on one side of which is carved a conventional true lover's knot and on the other the same, what similar, but strikingly different "dollar mark."

E. Donald Robb, architect, who has head draughtsmen for Cranford and Ferguson, designers of the church, is quoted as having admitted designing the dollar mark, saying it was "done in fun," and asserting that he could see that it was a subject of newspaper comment.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 6.—New York was introduced today to the postage meter, a machine which every man his own stamp printer and does away with the necessity of sticking them on. The National City bank has the first one exhibited here.

The machine, recently approved by the postoffice department, prints on the letters a little square about the size of a stamp, in which appears the words "U. S. Postage—Paid 2 Cents."

The machine is equipped with a register which can be set only by postoffice authorities. When the register shows the user has stamped as many letters as he paid for, the machine stops and has to be taken to the postoffice to be reset.

NURSE SAYS SHE DOESN'T REGRET KINKEAD DEATH

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 6.—Miss Olivia M. Stone, a graduate nurse, formerly of Cincinnati, was told today that she killed Ellis Guy Kinkead, attorney and former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, when she fired six shots into his body in Brooklyn, late yesterday.

The young woman was too hysterical last night to be told that Mr. Kinkead was dead and that she had taken effect in his legs. She swooned after the shooting into the arms of a detective who rushed up to disarm her.

Miss Stone, according to the police, admitted the shooting and declared Kinkead was her common law husband, and that he had deserted her to marry another woman.

Mr. Kinkead had lived here since 1913 with the former Miss Marie Louise Gormley of Covington, Ky., whom he married in Cincinnati.

Asked by newspaper men if she regretted the shooting, Miss Stone said: "I don't regret it at all. I'm the happiest woman in the world. Ellis Kinkead is now in the place where the dawn comes like thunder."

STORY OF A THWARTED LOVE TOLD BY NURSE

New York, Aug. 6.—The story of a thwarted love was told today by Miss Olivia M. P. Stone, Cincinnati nurse, after she had been held without bail on a charge of homicide in connection with the shooting of Ellis Guy Kinkead, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, near his home in Brooklyn yesterday.

In contrast to Miss Stone's volubility, was the brevity of Mrs. Marie Louise Kinkead, who was preparing to take her husband's body tomorrow to Covington, Ky., for burial. She would only reiterate her faith in her husband.

Nervous and trembling after a sleepless night, Miss Stone recovered her composure today, when first she was taken to police headquarters for further questioning and then was arraigned.

It was while riding in a patrol wagon that she talked most freely. Sketching her acquaintance with Kinkead, she said that she had met him in Cincinnati in 1913 when she nursed him for a week's convalescence. That he then made love to her—"oh, he was a very fast worker," was the way she put it.

That she gave him $1,000 to invest for her, but that she never saw it again.

That his love waned and that she got him discharged from the faculty of the Cincinnati law school in 1920 after he had refused to marry her.

That he then had married Marie Louise Gormley of Covington, and disappeared from town.

That she had sued him for divorce, alleging herself to be his common law wife; had been awarded $1,000 alimony, but never had received a cent.

That she had purchased a revolver for her protection, came to New York to effect a reconciliation, and located him and had him in wait for him near his home.

"When I saw him crossing the street I approached him and said: 'How do you do, Mr. Ellis Kinkead, you dirty rat, you're surprised to see me, aren't you?'"

"What followed?" she was asked.

"I don't remember," she replied.

"An awful chill overcame me. I don't know what I did. Next I was in the station house. They told me I had killed him. Later they told me I had killed him."

"I don't regret it. I'm the happiest woman in the world. Ellis Kinkead is now in the place where the dawn comes up like thunder."

Mrs. Kinkead, in a statement, said: "I want it understood that there is no malice in my heart against the woman."

"That is not the first time she had had trouble with me."

"I still believe in my husband and that his relations with her were simply that of patient and nurse."

SLAV PEASANTS WHO ATTEMPTED TO ESCAPE TAX LEVIES KILLED

Brown, European director of the American relief administration, from Leo Kamenoff, chairman of the Russian relief committee.

"All Americans detained at Moscow, Petrograd, in prisons and in camps will be sent overseas tomorrow, or by August 8 at the latest. The delay is due to unavoidable formalities connected with granting free pardons. The central authorities are unaware of any Americans being interned or in prison in provincial places, but orders have been given for the release of Americans if there are any."

"M. Litvinoff, a member of the all-Russian commission for combating famine, is leaving for Riga on August 8, and is due to arrive there on August 10. He is authorized to discuss with you and to arrange all details for American relief in Russia and to sign an agreement. He proposes to meet with you Wednesday at the Russian legation at Riga."

If this arrangement for the meeting should be unsatisfactory to Mr. Brown, the message suggests that he "please suggest to M. Litvinoff some other time or place."

FAMINE CONDITIONS ARE REPORTED WORSE

Riga, Aug. 5 (By The Associated Press).—The Russian public so far is apparently ignorant that the question of the release of American prisoners is involved in famine relief, as Moscow newspapers received today make no mention of the notes of Secretaries Hoover and Hughes.

These newspapers, however, report famine conditions are growing worse, particularly among children, 500,000 of whom in the Volga district are reported by M. Lunarskiy, a leader in the soviet relief measures, to have been abandoned by their parents to the care of the state. He is reported to have declared that this action will furnish a better plan for the carrying out of the soviet program of nationalization of children.

William D. Haywood, American Industrial Worker of the World leader, apparently has changed his mind about returning to America, according to an arrival here. He expects to assist in the relief work, it was said.

JUDGE J. G. JENKINS DIES AT MILWAUKEE

(By The Associated Press.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 6.—Judge James G. Jenkins, 87, who in the panic year of 1893 created a furor by issuing an injunction restraining the employees of the North Pacific railroad, whose wages had been reduced, from combining or conspiring to strike, died here. He admitted the workers' right to combine for mutual benefit or protection. The road was then in the hands of a federal receiver. Higher courts upheld his ruling.

Judge Jenkins declined appointment to the bench of the supreme court of the United States, offered him by President Cleveland.
